

Four-Year Alignment Process for 2017-18 thru 2020-21

Enrollment numbers for this cycle are collected in October 2015

Fall Sports:

- ◆ During the Spring of 2016 each Fall sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Fall of 2017.
- ◆ The alignments are released in late Summer of 2016
- ◆ Schools and leagues are given the fall (e.g. including District Workshops) of 2016 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- ◆ Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before December 21, 2016
- ◆ Appeals by each sport committee will be heard during the Winter of 2016-17
- ◆ Final Fall Alignments for 2017, 2018, 2019, and 2020 will be released during the Spring of 2017.

Winter Sports:

- ◆ During the Spring of 2016 each Winter sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Winter of 2017-18
- ◆ The alignments are released in late Summer of 2016
- ◆ Schools and leagues are given the fall (e.g. including District Workshops) of 2016 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- ◆ Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before December 21, 2016
- ◆ Appeals by each sport committee will be heard during the Winter of 2016-17
- ◆ Final Winter Alignments 2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20, and 2020-21 will be released late Spring of 2017.

Spring Sports:

- ◆ During the Summer-Fall of 2016 each Spring sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Spring of 2018.
- ◆ The alignments are released in late Winter of 2016-17
- ◆ Schools and leagues are given the Spring of 2017 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- ◆ Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before June 21, 2017
- ◆ Appeals by each sport committee will be heard by November 1, 2017
- ◆ Final Spring Alignments for 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021 will be released during the Winter of 2017-18.