

Online Wellness Resources for Schools

last updated January 10, 2022

In collaboration with the MIAA Partners in Prevention (PIP) organizations, this document of online resources for schools has been created. We hope you will find it useful.

The MIAA and Partners in Prevention are offering webinars, pre-recorded programs, blogs, free access to resources and are updating their websites with new material on an ongoing basis. Please click on the links below for each respective organization for more specific information.

This document will continue to be updated on a regular basis.
