

MIAA Signs Partnership with Endicott College

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FRANKLIN, MA (October 13, 2021) — The Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) has signed a new partnership with Endicott College’s Graduate & Professional Studies program. The partnership will inform MIAA member school staff members about the graduate educational opportunities available to them at Endicott College.

“The MIAA is excited to partner with Endicott College,” said MIAA Executive Director Robert Baldwin. “I believe our member schools across the state will find value in learning more about the programs and opportunities Endicott has to offer.”

Endicott College has been educating students in Massachusetts since 1939. Today, Endicott offers associate, bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees, plus graduate-level certificates, and enrolls more than 2,900 traditional undergraduate students and 1,760 graduate students at its main campus in Beverly, Mass., online, and at offsite locations.

“We are thrilled to be a sponsor for the MIAA,” said Jeanne Zilliox, Director of Recruitment for Graduate and Professional Studies. “Endicott has a long history of strong partnerships that enhance our students' experience. We are looking forward to creating opportunities for the MIAA members to be a part of the Endicott community.”

Endicott College will be hosting a Graduate and Professional Studies Open House on Thursday, October 14, 2021 from 6:00 to 8:00pm - CLICK HERE to register.
